

PROFILE – Eliezer Kornhauser

Eliezer is the founder and chief executive of CMA. Eliezer has qualifications and experience in law and commerce and an extensive background in merchant banking and conflict management. Since establishing CMA in 1993, Eliezer has been involved in a broad range of mediation and process management assignments, and has presented hundreds of workshops in negotiation, conflict management and business ethics. Eliezer is a Professional Associate of Monash Law.

Eliezer is also Chairman of BCI Group, a private property investment and development company.

Eliezer is an experienced strategic planner, project manager and mentor, with particular expertise in the negotiation and ongoing management of complex business relationships